DAY 3 - 27TH SEPTEMBER

SACRED VALLEY

Buffet breakfast

THE SACRED VALLEY OF THE INCAS The Sacred Valley of the Incas, northeast of Cusco, is formed by the Urubamba River and is one of the most interesting places in Peru. Among its attractions we have:

OLLANTAYTAMBO FORTRESS Visit the oldest continuously occupied settlement in the Americas, the town of Ollantaytambo with its imposing Inca fortress. It was here that Manco Inca defeated the Spanish in 1538 before fleeing to the mountains of Vilcabamba. You will climb the steep stone steps up to the fortress (around 260 steps) and can admire the huge Monoliths that form the Temple of the Sun and the view down the valley.

CHINCHERO Located 35 km. (22 miles) northwest of Cusco, the town of Chinchero lies on the foundations of an important Inca site built in the late 1400s. Brightly dressed, the people of Chinchero gather in the main plaza to barter foodstuffs and offer visitors an array of crafts from the Cusco region against a scenery of breathtaking beauty.

TEXTILE DEMONSTRATION This demonstration lasts approximately an hour and a half and you will be able to enjoy the presentation of some experts weavers from different places dressed with their typical clothing. They will explain step by step the elaboration process and finally they will show you the final product.

HACIENDA HUAYOCCARI One of the best farm houses located at the top of a hill from where one can observe the fields of cultivation and part of the Sacred Valley with magnificent scenery. It belongs to the Lambarry family whose father was major of the city of Cusco. The farm produces one of the best corns in Peru the "White quality" famous for its big grains and exported worldwide. Part of the residence is colonial style and the living room is one of the nicest and beautiful for its decoration, it possesses paintings and very important handmade works of craft.

Buffet Lunch at Huayoccarí Farm

Overnight at the hotel - Sonesta Posada del Inca Yucay.

DAY 4 - 28TH SEPTEMBER

2D/1N MISMINAY INDIAN COMMUNITY TREK

Buffet Breakfast

9:00 - Departure from the hotel to Chequerec Community a typical andean village. At this point we start our trek trough narrow paths traditionally used by the Indians many centuries ago. On the way we will pass trough the magnificent green & brown coloured fields and beautiful scenery. During our journey, we will appreciate small indigenous villages, cultivation fields, peasants working, curious children and a variety of animals as well as a varied flora.

This walk is an opportunity to discover a different pace and be in contact with the natural atmosphere of the Andes and its people. After some hours of walk finally we will arrive at the Indian Community of Misminay .At 3,700 m. altitude its location is spectacular, like a natural balcony from where you can look at the splendid landscape and the snow capped mountains which surrounds the sacred Valley. This view certainly astounds and leaves a deep impression on all those who visit this place. We will be received by the people of the village, and welcomed with a typical sweet spearmint tea, this agreeable herb is edible and medicinal for the local people .It has fabulous therapeutic properties and is also used in salads or added to cooked foods. Families live together in tiny, one or two room adobe homes, raising guinea pigs, cows and sheep. Fathers work as porters for hikers during the dry season and tend crops of potatoes, corn, beans and quinoa during the wet months, while mothers watch the herds, take care of the household and raise their children. Women also weave, producing the family's colorful ponchos, chullos, skirts, shawls and other items, on their backstrap looms.

Lunch at the community.

After lunch we will have a demonstration of weavings made by the women of the community. They will show us traditional & ancestral techniques.

Dinner in the community meeting room.

Accommodation with the local community - you will have a wonderful experience!!

DAY 5 - 29TH SEPTEMBER

MISMINAY - MORAY - SACRED VALLEY

After breakfast, we will have a nice trek down hill through the fields and reach the famous site of MORAY, a very unique archaeological site in the region. These are enormous natural depressions or hollows in the ground's surface that Inkas used for constructing irrigated farming terraces. This was an important center of domestication, acclimatisation and hybridisation of wild vegetable species that were modified or adapted for human consumption.

In the afternoon we will return to our hotel in the Sacred Valley.

VISIT TO THE SEMINARIO CERAMIC STUDIO The Seminario Ceramic Studio has been dedicated to the discovery of techniques and designs from ancient Peruvian cultures. The images that emerge are the result of the patient work of following the tradition of pre-Colombian pottery, an ambitious task which Pablo Seminario got underway 20 years ago and which he continues to develop together with his wife Marilú.

Today, one comes across the Seminario's pottery in countless venues and homes in Cuzco, however some 90% of their work is exported, and their pieces are now found all over the world. Researchers have visited Urubamba to study their work, and the Seminario's pieces constantly appear in magazines on decoration and art in several countries.

Pablo Seminario himself will give you a tour and show you each step of the process of the creation of his work. You will have the opportunity to purchase Seminario products.

Dinner included

Overnight at the hotel - Sonesta Posada del Inca Yucay.

DAY 6 - 30TH SEPTEMBER

MACHU PICCHU

Buffet breakfast.

Transfer to the Ollanta Station to take your train to Machu Picchu

On arrival at Aguas Calientes Town, you will be transported by bus to the top of the mountain top and citadel of Machu-Picchu. One of the most renowned examples of Inca architecture, Machu-Picchu is believed to have been built in the mid 15th century by the Inca Pachacutec.

Surrounded by lush cloud forest, the citadel perches on a mist-shrouded mountaintop. Lost in history, it was not discovered until 1911 by the American explorer Hiram Bingham.

You can walk up to the spectacular Sun Gate (INTIPUNKA) where the view will take your breath away. You will also have the option to climb the towering Huayna Picchu which is the pinnacle peak and look down upon the Citadel of Machu Picchu. The sense of achievement and the classic view into the lost citadel will be a unique experience.

Everything about Machu Picchu makes you marvel that it ever came to exist. The lost city of the Incas is built on a saddle-shaped ridge slung between two giant peaks. Near vertical slopes drop away on either side, down to a massive bend in the Urubamba River.

Machu Picchu was hidden by jungle since the 16th century until it was rediscovered in 1911. Today it is a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Dinner included

Overnight in Aguas Calientes – Hatuchay Tower, www.hatuchaytower.com

DAY 7 - 1ST OCTOBER

SACRED VALLEY / MACHU PICCHU

Buffet breakfast.

Second Entrance to the Citadel.

After an early breakfast we will take the bus to the Citadel of Machu Picchu to watch the sunrise. This is a truly spectacular sight as the sun's rays begin to encompass the mountain. An archaeological guided tour of the Citadel will detail the history of the people who lived here. This is a fascinating insight into the culture of the Inca people. The day will provide plenty of time to wander the ruins at your own pace and enjoy the peace and tranquility it offers.

Transfer to the station and take the train to Cusco.
Arrival in Ollanta Station. From here we take a bus to Cusco (1hr 20 mins)

Dinner included
Overnight at the hotel – Sonesta Cusco

DAY 8 - 2ND OCTOBER

CUSCO

Buffet breakfast.

Today is a day of leisure and shopping. There are many bargains to be had in Cusco, from beautiful silver jewelry to gorgeous woolen garments. Here you will find something really special and unique. This evening we will enjoy a Folklore Show and dinner at Don Antonio restaurant. It offers a buffet style dinner with both international and local cuisine along with fabulous Peruvian music and dances.

DAY 9 - 3RD OCTOBER

CUSCO - PUERTO MALDONADO

Buffet breakfast.

Transfer from your hotel in order to take your flight to Puerto Maldonado

After a short flight from Cusco we will arrive at Puerto Maldonado where we will be met at the airport and driven a short 10 minutes to the headquarters. Arrival and reception by our local guide. While enjoying your first taste of the forest in beautiful gardens you will be asked you to pack only the necessary gear for your next few days, and leave the rest at the safe deposit. This helps to keep the boats and cargo light.

Puerto Maldonado to Tambopata River Port. Skirting Puerto Maldonado, we drive 20 kilometers to the Tambopata River Port , entering the Native Community of Infierno. The port is a communal business.

Boxed lunch provided.

Tambopata River Port to Posada Amazonas. The forty five minute boat ride from the Tambopata Port to Posada Amazonas will take us into the Community's Primary Forest Private Reserve.

Orientation. Upon arrival, the lodge manager will welcome you and brief you with important navigation and security tips.

Canopy tower: A twenty minute walk from Posada Amazonas leads to the 30 meter scaffolding canopy tower. A bannistered staircase running through the middle provides safe access to the platforms above. From atop you obtain spectacular views of the vast expanses of standing forest cut by the Tambopata River winding through the middle. Now and then toucans, parrots or macaws are seen flying against the horizon, or mixed species canopy flocks land in the treetop next to you.

Dinner.

Ecotourism Lecture. A daily presentation on the Infierno ecotourism project is available every night from a staff member.

Lunch and Dinner provided.

Overnight at Posada Amazonas - www.perunature.com

DAY 10 - 4TH OCTOBER

PUERTO MALDONADO

Buffet breakfast.

Tres Chimbadas Oxbow Lake. Tres Chimbadas is thirty minutes by boat and forty five minutes hiking from Posada Amazonas. Once there you will paddle around the lake in a catamaran, searching for the resident family of nine giant river otters (seen by 60% of our lake visitors) and other lakeside wildlife such as caiman, hoatzin and horned screamers.

Lunch.

Ethnobotanical Tour. A twenty minute boat ride downriver leads you to a trail designed by the staff of the Centro Ñape. The Centro Ñape is a communal organization that produces medicines out of forest plants and administers them to patients who choose their little clinic. They have produced a trail which explains the different medicinal (and other) uses of selected plants.

Dinner.

Night walk. You will have the option of hiking out at night, when most of the mammals are active but rarely seen. Much easier to find are frogs with shapes and sounds as bizarre as their natural histories.

Lunch and Dinner provided.

Overnight at Posada Amazonas

DAY 11 - 5TH OCTOBER

PUERTO MALDONADO

Buffet breakfast.

Parrot clay lick. This clay lick is only a twenty minute walk from Posada Amazonas. From a blind located about twenty meters away you will see dozens of parrots and parakeets descend on most clear mornings to ingest the clay on a river bank. Species such as Mealy and Yellow-headed Amazon, Blue-headed Parrot and Dusky headed Parakeet descend at this clay lick. The clay lick is active at dawn, during the late mornings and mid-afternoons.

Ceiba Trail Hike. We leave from the lobby at Posada Amazonas and embark on a two hour hike crowned by the largest tree in the vicinity: a giant ceiba tree. During the hike we will focus on the natural history of the rain forest and its principal taxonomic groups. Lunch and Dinner provided.
Overnight at Posada Amazonas

DAY 12 - 6TH OCTOBER

PUERTO MALDONADO TO LIMA

Buffet breakfast.

Transfer to the airport to take your flight to Lima Arrival in Lima. Reception and transfer to your hotel

DAY 13 - 7TH OCTOBER

ICA - NAZCA LINES

Buffet breakfast.

Transfer by private bus to Ica, approximately 4 hours.
Ica is a beautiful area along the southern Peruvian coast, famous for its Paracas Reserve, Ballestas Islands as well as for its wines and colonial mansions. Important cultures developed in this area.

OVERFLIGHT NAZCA LINES

You will enjoy a fascinating flight over the Nazca Lines. Mysterious markings on the sand spread over an area of 350 square kilometres. These lines feature several animals such as the spider, monkey, the dog, lizard, the humming bird and the condor among others.

The size of these markings range from 15 to 300 metres each with a depth of around 30 centimetres. According to Dr Maria Reiche, who has spent most of her life studying these lines, this is the largest astronomical calendar of the world. It is a true marvel to see. (This flight is optional - Duration of the overflight from Ica is 1 hour 20 mins)

Dinner included
Overnight at Las Dunas Hotel
